An Elevated Experience

Elevating casual modern Australian dining to atmospheric levels, Strato sets the stage for both intimate private dinners and large-scale cocktail soirées. Each event is thoughtfully crafted to provoke the senses—through generous, familiar flavours, laid-back elegance, and breathtaking skyline views.

Believing that culinary excellence lies in celebrating ingredients at their best—simple, seasonal, and full of character—we invite guests to gather in our supper club in the sky, where every occasion becomes a moment of connection, discovery, and effortless sophistication.

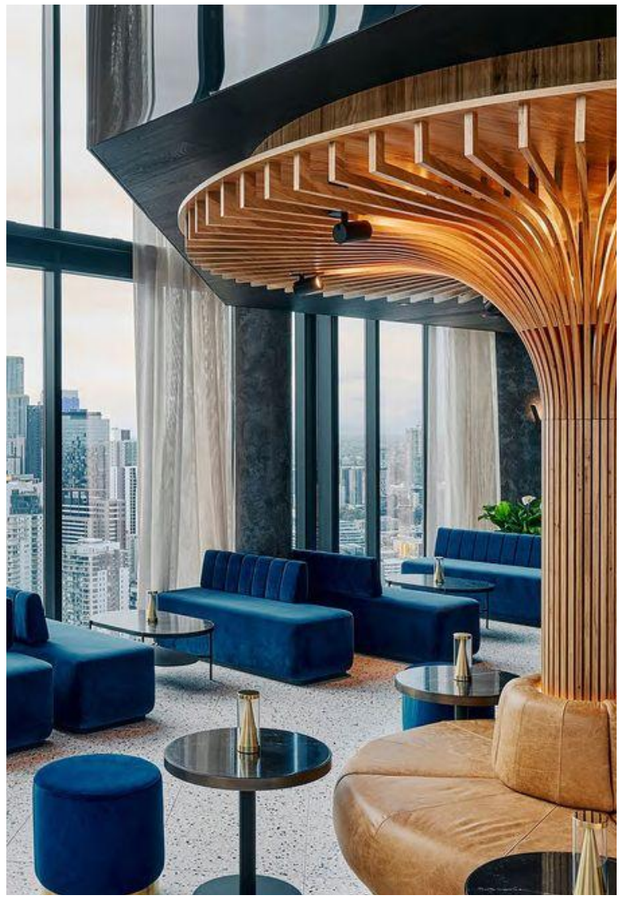

The Venue

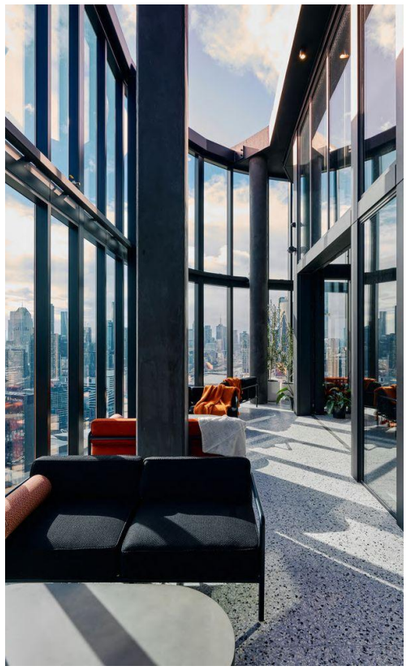

Upon arrival at 202 Normanby Road in Southbank, guests will enter Strato Melbourne through a private entrance located within the elegant lobby of Oakwood Premier Melbourne. From there, they'll ascend to the 40th floor, where the striking venue entry immediately immerses visitors in the experience — featuring a dramatic glass floor that hovers above the vibrant cityscape below.

To the left of the foyer lies the main Strato Bar and Lounge, which accommodates up to 200 guests. To the right, guests will find the restaurant, offering a refined dining experience.

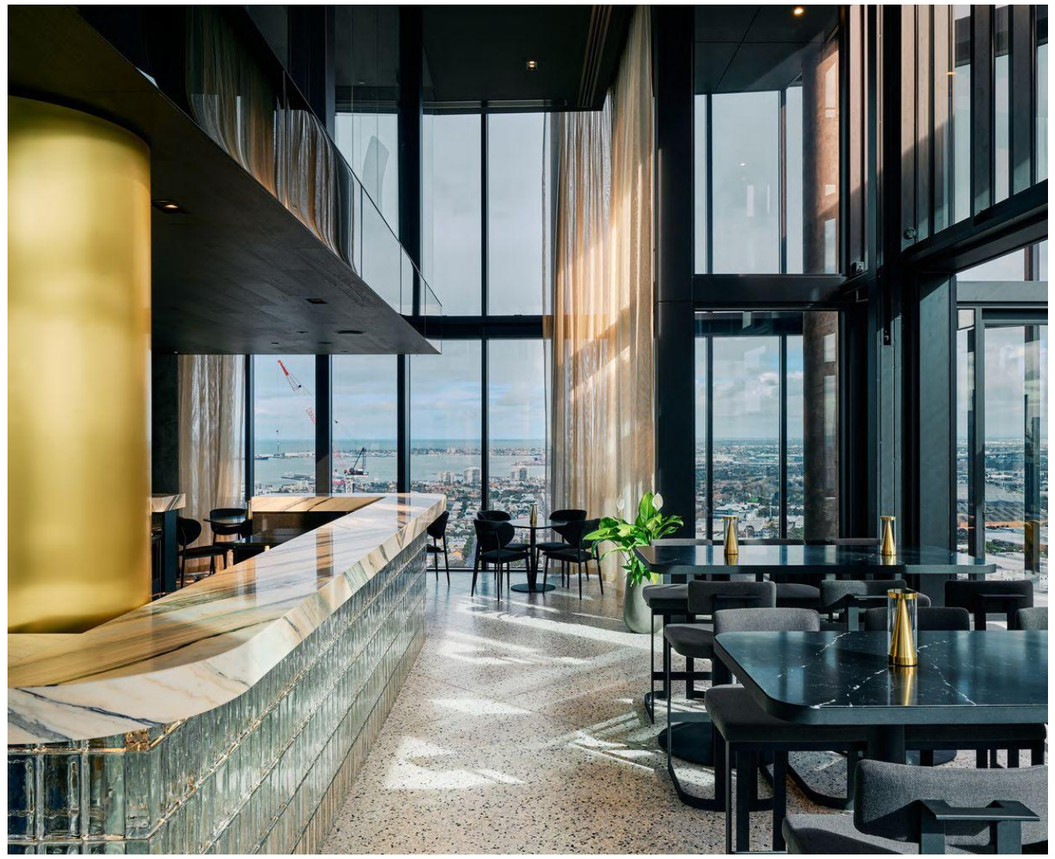

Above both spaces, on Level 41, is an exclusive function and event area designed for special occasions, private events, and VIP gatherings — all with unmatched privacy and breathtaking views.

Strato Bar boasts a 16 metres stone bar with an illuminated glass brick frame. Attached to the main bar and lounge is an alfresco terrace, perfect for warmer nights, resembling the famous rooftops in New York City. With 7-meter tall glass windows, guests will enjoy views of the city skyline whilst enjoying our elevated menu, seasonal cocktails, wines and locally crafted beers.

Strato, the restaurant, is romantically modern, seating up to 114 guests and providing exceptional views of Port Phillip Bay. The restaurant has its own live kitchen, made from a stone benchtop and filtered glass bottom that is subtly lit. Within the restaurant sits three concave booths separated from the main dining area, a perfect option for date night.

Custom menus and catering available for specific events.
Some items subject to seasonal availability.

"I would also like to give special recognition to the team at Strato. Their professionalism, hospitality, service, assistance, support, and friendliness were truly appreciated. Working with them was a pleasure and their contributions greatly contributed to the smooth running of the day. Please extend my heartfelt thanks to them and convey my appreciation to the appropriate management."

"I want to express my gratitude to the team for organising a fantastic birthday celebration. The staff members did an outstanding job ensuring all our guests were content and had a wonderful time."

"We hosted an event here on Saturday night, and it exceeded our expectations. The staff is exceptionally friendly, the food is superb, and the views are breathtaking. I highly recommend hosting your event at Strato, and booking accommodation with Oakwood was effortless."

"We recently held our wedding at Strato, and it was an outstanding venue from beginning to end. The team went out of their way to fulfill all our requests, ensuring that our day was everything we had envisioned. The meticulous attention to detail, the quality of the food, and the wonderful feedback from our guests were truly remarkable."
